Royal IHC appoints Jan Mulder as Chief Financial Officer

Royal IHC is pleased to announce the appointment of Jan Mulder as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective 1 January 2027. He will join Royal IHC's Executive Board, working alongside CEO Erik-Jan Bijvank and COO Bert Jan ter Riet.

Jan Mulder brings extensive financial and leadership experience in international, project-driven organisations. He currently serves as Financial Director of the Offshore Energy division at Boskalis, where he leads the finance organisation and is responsible for the division's financial strategy, performance and control.

Throughout his career, Jan Mulder has held senior financial and leadership positions at Boskalis and NEM Energy. His experience spans project control, risk management, tax and treasury, investments and acquisitions, and the financial management of large international projects. He has worked in complex contracting environments, in the Netherlands and abroad.

With his strong financial background and broad operational experience, Jan is well positioned to support the next phase of Royal IHC's development.

Jan Mulder: "I am excited to join Royal IHC, a company with a strong heritage, deep technical expertise and a distinctive position in the maritime sector. I look forward to getting to know the organisation and working with my new colleagues to further strengthen Royal IHC and contribute to its future success."

As CFO, Jan Mulder will play an important role in strengthening Royal IHC's financial performance, transparency and discipline, while supporting the company's sustainable and profitable growth.
